We are talking about drilling down to our biggest problem and need in our schools, to ask hard questions, to give truthful answers and to get uncomfortable, all for the main goal of making better kids and better schools. How fitting is this for our own lives in our walk with Christ. We need to ask ourselves hard questions, we need to look in the mirror and be brutally honest with ourselves. We need to see the sin living in us that we have tried to hide so well, tried to mask, and to find excuses for. The Bible has a verse that asks God to search the heart and show the author the inner most secrets, he then asks for direction and wisdom to make the changes. I think in the quiet of our lives we need to do the same. We all desire to be better, and we all want to look more like Christ!
 Now its time to rip out some grown in sin, to see the horror in the mirror looking back at us. The only way to change is to find the problem, and to fix it, we ALL have a sin problem and the only true and lasting fix is Jesus!
