The First Day of Summer

Thursday, June 21, is the first day of Summer. Did you realize that Thursday is the first day of Summer? Did you even know that Summer has begun? Let me ask us, how do the days know to get longer? How does the temperature know to get hotter? I will tell us. The answer is God the Creator is in charge. Colossians 1:16-17 says, "For by Him all things were created: things in Heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers or authorities, all things were created by Him and for Him. He is before all things and in Him all things hold together." God created the seasons and when a new Season starts, God is in charge of creation and the new Season of Summer.

Happy First Day of Summer!
 See you Sunday at Church

BigStuf this weekend..

If you are going with us on the trip meet at 10:30 in the youth room Friday June 22nd, packed and ready to go!!!!

Micheal and I are reading through Leviticus right now, and it astounds me at how much this chapter talks about sin and the amount of blood that must be spilled to cover the multitude of sins. The known sins, and the unknown sins. Just the sheer number of animal lives that were taken to atone for the sins of the people baffles my mind. It got me to thinking of the animals that would have to be sacrificed for my sins in just one day! I don't know if there are enough cows and rams and goats in this county! It also points me back to the main reason and focus of our faith, Jesus. Without this perfect blood sacrifice for all, we would still be lost and in need of the blood of purification daily. It again leads me to the verse that talks about how God desires obedience more than sacrifice. God is a god of love and compassion, He is also a god of anger and wrath. I am ever more thankful that they met on Calvary's hill, and that Jesus had the faith and the will power to take upon Himself all that was due me, I could never have finished that work as He did if it were left up to me. Blood, must be spilled to atone for sin, a life must be taken to redeem and to align back with a perfect God. Jesus did all of that for you and for me. NEVER forget that, or take it for granted! Live as you are loved, fully and wholly. Set apart for greatness. Set apart to worship, and serve a wonderful God.
